

We are off to the park.

The farm has a big barn.

My arm is long and thin.

It is dark at night.

Mum parked the car.

Pam barks at the moon.

I can see stars at night.

A shark has sharp teeth.

The carpet is pink and red.

I can see a starfish.

My cat has short legs.

Dad and I sort the socks.

A torch is good at night.

We sat on the porch.

Will I have corn or not?

My jacket is torn.

I toot the car's horn.

That thorn is sharp.

The chicken is on the fork.

It is a wet mornning.

I pat the rabbit's fur.

You can burn in the sun.

My cat curls up on my lap.

I hurt my foot on a thorn.

Dad turns the car right.

Dan burps all night.

The cat's fur is short.

My mum is going surfing.

I can hiccup and burp!

The wood is burning.

I am going to town now.

The farm has lots of cows.

I march down the hill.

How did you do that?

The dog howls at the moon.

The owl is sleeping.

I am in a good mood now.

How far is it to town?

He ran down the road.

Owls can hoot.

Mum picks up a jar of oil.

The eggs boil in the pot.

The chicken is on the foil.

I will join you at the shops.

The seed was in the soil.

Dan picked up the coin.

The pig said, “Oink!”

Mum tips oil into the pan.

The eggs are hard boiled.

He slips on the wet soil.

My ears can hear things.

I will be ten this year.

He has a fear of sharks.

A rabbit has long ears.

Nan said, “Dear me!”

The park is near the shop.

She was in tears.

I can hear rain on the roof.

A tear ran down his cheek.

I sat near the black cat.

Her hair is long and dark.

I got a pair of black boots.

The air is cool at night.

“That is not fair!” he said.

That chair is too hard.

“It was pure luck,” he said.

I have a cure for your rash.

I tip the mixture into the tin.

“Do not get injured!” he yells.

I mixed manure into the soil.

It is hot in the summer.

I am quicker and stronger.

I feel better now.

My sister is a singer.

The waiter drops the dish.

The cat is underer the chair.

That fish is fresher.

This pool is much deeper.

The hammer hits the nail.

I had chicken for dinner.
